How to Cite Information about the Sources You Have Used in Your Presentation

This example will illustrate how to cite information that you might use in the “Quality of the Research Sources” section of your paper and presentation.

If you use the website Hofstede Insights to provide information about Hofstede’s Dimensions, and you want to share information with your client regarding why this is an authoritative source, you would click on the “About Us” tab at the top of the page.

Any information that you use from that page must be cited.

The references list entry would look like this:

The Parts:
Hofstede Insights. = Corporate author
(n.d.). = Date of publication not available
Who We Are. = Title of the page
Retrieved from with URL where page can be found

NOTE:
You must cite the information that you borrow to describe the authority and reliability of your sources.
